

Clases Magistrales 3: El futuro de Europa: política, economía y política exterior en el siglo XXI

*Masterclass 3: The Future of Europe: Politics, Economics and Foreign Policy in the 21st Century

Madrid, 20, 21 y 22 de junio de 2016

Madrid, June 20, 21 and 22, 2016

CV

JULIUS SEN

Mr Julius Sen is academic director and senior programme advisor at LSE Enterprise. Mr Sen designs and delivers executive education programmes for private sector companies and for senior civil servants from the UK, the UAE, Taiwan, Kazakhstan, Libya, Hong Kong, Thailand and Spain. He also teaches courses at Birkbeck College on the WTO and on the political economy of developing countries. He has contributed extensively to projects that evaluate the policy and regulatory implications of commercial developments, including technological change and innovation; his expertise also relates to the commercial implications of policy and regulatory decisions taken by governments, regulators and international institutions. A member of the Indian Administrative Service for almost 30 years, Julius is now part of the International Trade Policy Unit in the Department of International Relations. He is a special adviser to the professional public affairs body FIPRA International. He was recently appointed Professor of Public Administration by the Academy of Public Administration under the President of Kazakhstan.