

Simposio Internacional: Plataformas internacionales de investigación biomédica y su valor en el estudio de las enfermedades raras

International Symposium: International platforms for biomedical research: A focus on rare diseases

Madrid, 3 y 4 de noviembre de 2016
Madrid, November 3-4, 2016

CV

MANUEL M. MORENTE

MD specialized in Pathology. Head of the Spanish National Cancer Research Centre (CNIO) biobank.

Active participant in International Scientific Societies and Working Groups in Biobanking including ESBB (president 2013-2014), ISBER (councilor from 2005 to 2008), BBMRI preliminary phase (Scientific Representative of Spanish Government, 2010-2013), BCNet-WHO-IARC initiative Steering Committee, etc. Independent Ethics advisor in EU-7thFP and IMI projects, and member of several international Scientific Advisory Board in biobanking. Director of the University Master on Biobanking organised by The Catholic University of Valencia and Spanish National Biobank Network.

Coordinator of the Spanish National Biobank Network, a nationwide initiative with more than 50 associated institutions (www.redbiobancos.es).