

Simposio Internacional: El Ártico: oportunidades y riesgos derivados del cambio climático

International Symposium: The Arctic: opportunities and challenges deriving from climate change

Madrid, 12 de diciembre de 2015

Madrid, November 12, 2015

CV

PETER SKÖLD

Peter Sköld is a professor in history, Sami culture and society development at Umeå University, Sweden. He is the director of the Centre for Arctic Research. Sköld's research profile includes historical demography, indigenous health transitions and northern cultures. Sköld is newly elected president of International Arctic Social Sciences Association (IASSA), council member of UArctic and vice chair for WG Human and Social Sciences in the International Arctic Science Committee (IASC). 2014-2018 Sköld is co-scientific leader of the 4,5 million Euro project New Governance for Sustainable Development in the European Arctic, involving 30 researchers.