

Oncología personalizada de precisión: situación actual y perspectivas de futuro

Personalized Precision Oncology: current status and future perspectives

Madrid, 21 y 22 de marzo / March 21-22, 2019

BIO

Santiago Ramón y Cajal Agüeras

MD, PhD

Professor and Chief Department of Pathology

Vall d'Hebron University Hospital

Autonoma University of Barcelona (UAB), Spain.

Doctor in Medicine by the University of Zaragoza.

Graduated with Honors and the Outstanding Award of Zaragoza School of Medicine an TOP medical student of Spain in 1982.

Named Honor Member of the College of Physicians of Zaragoza in 1997 in recognition of his work in tumor suppressor genes.

Ernesto Seco Award from the National Academy of Medicine, 1996, granted to the "Spanish physician presenting the best investigative work, performed in 1995 and 1996".

National Award for Cancer Research, 1997, Fundación Caja Rural Soria, for the best "unpublished work on any aspect of cancer".

PDD, for Leadership Development and Business Administration, IESE 2014

Member Elected of the National Academy of Medicine of Spain. 2014

On academic activity

Professor of Histology and Pathology in the Schools of Medicine of Zaragoza and the Universidad Autónoma in Madrid.(1990-2003) and in the Universidad Autónoma of Barcelona. (2003-...)

On clinical activity

1990 to 2003, Head of the Molecular Pathology Unit at Clínica Puerta de Hierro in Madrid. 2003-. Chairman of the Pathology. Dep. of Vall d'Hebron University Hospital.

On research activity

Scholarship of the Spanish Educational Department in 1983 and 1984. Scholarship from the Spanish Health Care Research Fund in 1989-1990. Visiting physician at the Sloan Kettering Cancer Center in New York in 1998. Postdoctoral fellowship at Yale University in 1989 and 1990. Since 1991 to 2002 head of the molecular Pathology Lab at Clinica Puerta de Hierro and from 2003, Head of the molecular pathology research group of Vall d'Hebron.

Visiting Professor at McGill University.

On activities and publications

Principal investigator in many research projects. Author of over 200 publications in international journals, chapters in 30 books and more than 300 communications at international meetings and.. Author of five patents.

Member of the scientific societies:

Spanish Society of Pathology.

Spanish Society of Cancer Research ASEICA

Member of the American College of Pathologists.

European Association for Cancer Research

American Cancer Research Association

Member of the USCAP