

Entender cómo funciona la economía y cómo hacerla trabajar en beneficio de todos

Understanding the economy and how to make it work better for people

Madrid, 28 de marzo de 2019 / March 28, 2019

BIO

Adriana Conconi

Adriana Conconi is the Director of Policy and Outreach at the Oxford Poverty & Human Development Initiative (OPHI), at the University. She oversees all collaborations with national governments and international agencies to develop multidimensional poverty measures tailored to various contexts and policy priorities. She holds a Master in Public Administration in International Development from Harvard University, as well as M.A. and B.A. degrees in Economics from the Universidad Nacional de La Plata (UNLP) – Argentina. Adriana has been working with OPHI since 2011, and led the Global MPI computations in 2013 and 2014. She has previously worked as a Researcher at the Centro de Estudios Distributivos, Laborales y Sociales (CEDLAS), at UNLP, was a Fellow at the Consejo Nacional de Investigaciones Científicas y Técnicas (CONICET), and a Lecturer in graduate and post-graduate courses at UNLP and Universidad de San Andres (Argentina).